PARALEGAL STUDIES SYMPOSIUM

Presented by the department of Accounting, Business Administration & Paralegal Studies

FRIDAY, MAY 9, 2008
Ammerman Campus
Selden, New York
This year’s Symposium was organized by the Suffolk County Community College Paralegal Studies Program faculty and students to continue to address the essential need for our students in the paralegal studies program to network with our paralegal alumni in the legal community. With financial support from Suffolk County Community College, the Suffolk Community College Foundation, Inc., Prentice Hall Pearson Custom Publishing, the Office of Ammerman Campus Activities, the Ammerman Campus Activities Board, the Chicago Title Insurance Company, McGraw-Hill, Island Medical Physicians, P.C., Island Urgent Medical Care, P.C., and the Department of Accounting, Business and Paralegal Studies, the Paralegal Studies Program professors and students were able to provide our current students with this unique opportunity to meet and network with some of our 1400 paralegal studies program alumni to discuss jobs, firms, areas of law, internships, salaries, benefits, legal practice and news in general concerning the legal field.

The Paralegal Studies Program professors and students gratefully acknowledge the generous assistance with this Symposium from the following Suffolk County Community College staff, faculty, students, administrators and alumni, and textbook publishers’ representatives: Veronica Aghabekian, Charles Bartolotta, Dyan Connelly, Jennifer Cummings, Renee Eichorn, Mary Anne Ellinger, Justine Hoffmann, Aida Manzo, Patty Munsch, Helen Nunez, Dennis O’Doherty, Brenda Ohrnstein, David Paredes, Michael Roseman, Alphonse Ruggiero, Darlyne Saintilus, Teriann Sammartino, Cynthia Z. Scesny, Eileen Selts, Sharon Silverstein, Chelsea Smith, Denise Speizio and Julia Acosta Walsh.
